"HIKERS" REACH MIDDLETOWN.

Suffragists on Horseback Tour Speak to Good Crowds.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Aug. 13.—Miss Harriet Pollett and Mrs. Nora Blatch De Forest of New York, two of the party of women suffrage crusaders from the headquarters of the Woman's Political Union on a "horseback hike," arrived here shortly before noon to-day. Their first stop to-day after leaving Chester was when a good crowd gathered to welcome them and where they disposed of all their souvenir buttons and pencils.

On the ride from Goshen to this city, Miss Pollett, the horse rider, Miss George Pollett, who is a camper's tent and Miss Pollett dropped a bag of money. She quickly controlled the horse, but half an hour was lost trying to find all the coins.

In this city the crusaders made two addresses at the Ontario and Western shops and to-night spoke to a good crowd at Midway Park, a summer resort. They were treated with uniform courtesy.

They go to Wurtsboro and Monticello to-morrow. The "hikers" separated to-day, the two others going to Cornwall, which was not visited yesterday, owing to the unscheduled stop at Newburgh.

TO REPLACE OUSTED TRUST CO.

Administrator of McDonald Estate

Named by Surrogate.

SURROGATE CHAMBERLAIN appointed Joseph McCloskey administrator yesterday of the estate of Alexander McDonald, the Standard Oil man, following the court's decision ousting the Metropolitan Trust Company, administrator, on the ground that the estate suffered from the loss of the Standard Oil stock, collateral on a note.

Miss Laura McDonald Stallo, granddaughter of Alexander McDonald and heir to half the estate, was appointed administrator. Mr. McCloskey filed a bond of $100,000 and Miss Stallo must give one of the same amount. The Surrogate directed the trust company to file an accounting of the estate within sixty days.
